Necrology

BEN GEORGE GRAHAM, Past President of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, 1935, died at his home in Pittsburgh, Friday, March 20, 1942.

Doctor Graham began his educational career as a teacher in Lawrence County in 1900, following which he was a teacher and principal of the McKeesport High School; principal of the high school at Greensburg; teacher of chemistry at Central High School, Pittsburgh; principal of the Latimer Junior High School, Pittsburgh; superintendent of the schools of New Castle; associate superintendent of the schools of Pittsburgh, and since 1927 superintendent of the schools of Pittsburgh.

His career was marked by his interest and service in professional and civic organizations. In 1939 he was president of the American Association of School Administrators. His professional service was marked also by active participation in the work of many State and National educational committees and commissions.

WARREN J. WEIKEL, elementary teacher in East Cameron Township, Northumberland County, for the past 16 years, died in Shamokin State Hospital, March 12, after an illness of four days. Death was caused by pneumonia.

ALICE MARGARET STEEL, a teacher at Belmont School, Philadelphia, died March 12.

WALTER R. THIEROLF, a member of the faculty of the Simon Gratz High School, Philadelphia, since the opening of the school in 1927, died February 9 after a lingering illness.

A. M. GINGRICH, supervising principal of Manheim Township, Lancaster County, died March 19 after a brief illness.

MARGARET MCANDREW, retired, a former teacher in the John Adams school, Scranton, died at the home of a niece, March 27.

WILLIAM H. LINDEMAN, former principal of the Bangor public schools, died at the Easton Hospital, April 8. He was 74. A native of Northampton County, Mr. Lindeman was principal of the Bangor schools for ten years.

Teachers on Vacation
Teachers who Marry

ARE STILL PROTECTED BY T. P. U.

EVEN though you are vacationing... stop teaching to marry or enter some other profession ... a T. P. U. certificate will continue to protect you against the financial hazards of sickness, accident and quarantine.

The NEW Peerless-Hospital Certificate gives full protection at a price that every teacher can afford. Benefits are liberal: $25.00 per week for home confinement ($10.00 the first week). If either sickness or accident confines you to a hospital, benefits are $37.50 per week for eight weeks, even including the first week. Other cash benefits run as high as $1,500.00.

FREE No Obligation

Fill out the coupon below for full information about the NEW Peerless-Hospital Certificate.
